Ten Thousand Persons. Expected to Witness Contests at Brightwood Reservoir.

Elaborate preparations for the horse show and tournament to be staged at the Brightwood reservoir July 4 are being made by the committee in charge of this event. The program will be given its final touches at a meeting to be held tomorrow in the office of Melvin C. Hazen, chairman

It is expected that fully 10,000 per sons will witness this part of the Independence day celebration, which will consume the entire afternoon. The events will take place on the green expanse between the reservoir and Rock Creek Park. The reservoir slope affords a natural grandstand, capable of seating several thousand persons. There also is ample room for the park ing of vehicles.

Mule Races a Feature.

The program will consist of a tourna ment, jumping and other events of a horse show character and races over a half-mile course. In addition to the special challenge mule race, in which representatives of local trade organizations and the newspaper fraternity will ride, there will be a free-for-all in cash will be presented the winner of the various events. Fort Myer rider and horses will be much in evidence In fact, the tournament part of th program will be supplied largely by the Fort Myer contingent. Also music will be furnished by the 5th Cavalry Band, stationed at Fort Myer.

Free to the Public.

The big open-air carnival will start about 2:30 o'clock, and, like the other features of the day's celebration, will be entirely free. So much space is available that no one should have difficulty obtaining a seat.

John W. Beale, superintendent of the engineer stables of the District, will officiate as judge for the races. Judges for the other events will be selected this week.
